All Class Reunion Dinner: "Am I too young, or too old?"

Have you ever wanted to get together with some of your old high school classmates but planning was just too much? Were you one of the officers of your class wondering how to get in touch with your classmates so you could plan a reunion? Do you know about the Alumni All Class Reunion that the Perry Alumni Association holds EVERY FALL is for ANY Perry Alum, young and old? All you need to do is RSVP online or use the form from the summer newsletter to book a table(s) (for you and your classmates)! If you are looking to plan a reunion dinner, please contact the Charon or Angela at the Alumni Association and we can help!

As a 1997 alumnus, I have really enjoyed meeting other Alumni at the dinner. I found out that one of my best pathophysiology professors from CWRU was an Alum and I get to say hello. I loved sharing memories and seeing how adorable my close friend's mom was as a PHS cheerleader. I heard many love stories of high school sweethearts. Talking to our more senior alumni has helped me hear some fun stories about what kind of clubs they had in school. Perry has so many families that have been here for many generations. We have some alumni that have done some amazing things and it is a great place to network. So, grab a few friends and come join us September 20th. (Written by Sue (Brill) Whittaker, class of 1997)
