

“Reading 101”

How to help your child build great reading habits at home for all grades pre K – 8

District 64 Parent University

Open to all parents and community members!

Monday, November 17, 6:30-7:30 p.m.

Franklin School (Library), 2401 Manor Lane, Park Ridge

Stay for the District 64 Board of Education meeting immediately following, too.

Good readers are created through a strong partnership between school, home, and the community.

Whether you have a reluctant reader, a child who devours books, or one that's in between – you will learn tactics you can use and discover resources to help your child grow.

- ✓ Learn the habits of good readers.
- ✓ Find out what it means to be a reader in the “Common Core” era.
- ✓ Access wonderful resources available to you through the schools or in the community!

Presented by Park Ridge-Niles School District 64

Meghan Keefer, District 64 English Language Arts Curriculum Specialist

Brittney Joyce, Washington School Library Information Specialist