FRANK J. KAMINSKI
CHIEF OF POLICE

The Park Ridge Police Department and District 64 Traffic Safety Committee have partnered to raise bicycle safety awareness once again. The first step to riding safely is wearing a helmet. Children are 14 times more likely to survive a bike crash if he or she is wearing a helmet. Studies show that wearing a bicycle helmet can reduce the risk of head injury by 85% and the risk of brain injury by 88% in bicycle accidents.

The contest is open to students in Grades K-3. Three winners per grade level will be chosen. Entries may be returned to school or dropped off at the Park Ridge Police Department, 200 S, Vine Ave. by Thursday, April 13th 2017. Winning entries will be announced Thursday, April 20, 2017 and displayed in the Park Ridge Police Department Lobby. Chief Frank Kaminski would like to recognize the winners of the coloring contest at the Park Ridge City Council meeting on Monday 1st, 2017 at 7:00pm.
