COMMUNICATIONS AND/OR OPPORTUNITY FOR EXPRESSION OF PUBLIC CONCERNS:

- FOIA
 - NBC – Request for information regarding School Resource Officers.
- Theresa Canton, representing District 83 bus drivers.
 - Bus Driver shortage not only in their department but throughout the country.
 - Higher wages and a better benefit package might entice drivers to the district and keep them.
 - Drivers that are leaving going to neighboring districts.
 - Contracted drivers aren't local, parents respect district drivers as their regular drivers.
 - Drivers need to feel they are appreciated.
 - Asked the Board to take into consideration a higher wage and a benefit package.
- Maria Payan, Bus Driver.
 - Has worked for district for 18 years. District is losing loving and caring drivers. The moment students board her bus, they become her children.
 - Drivers are the backbone of the district.
- Eddie Burch stated it is nice to have consistent drivers. Both teachers and parents like to have continuity with the drivers.
- Mrs. Anderson – We hear what you are telling us. We are being informed of things happening in the Transportation Department. A meeting will be held to inform you of updates.
- Kathy Lovely – Wanted to thank the Board for the Retirement Celebration, the teacher Appreciation Breakfast, and the t-shirts.
