Stewardship: Second Collection to Benefit Bánica Mission August 25—26

This weekend, August 25-26, the second collection will benefit the Bánica Mission. Since 1991, the Arlington Diocese has provided clergy to two parishes in the rural highlands of the Dominican Republic. The two parishes, in the neighboring towns of Bánica and Pedro Santana on the Haitian border, minister to over 13,000 souls, most of whom live in extreme poverty. Your generosity will allow the diocese to continue to provide spiritual and material assistance to those who need it most. For more information on how you can support the Bánica Mission, go to https://bit.ly/2KlpPty.

Today’s readings call us to a challenge. Who do we love? Where will we place our allegiance, and will this allegiance remain when it becomes hard “to accept?” In our Gospel, John relates that the “saying” so difficult for Jesus’ audience to accept is that Christ is the Bread of Life.

Last week we heard: “...unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you.” (John 6:53). The words make for a nice verse for a Communion song, and they have long stymied theology students of all ages. But what do they mean? Transubstantiation is a heady topic, so maybe we should just accept it and get on with our day.

Yet, Christ does not want blind followers, nor does He require doctorates in Christology to meet Him at the altar or in the street. Rather, He wants those who truly accept Him as their Messiah and His teachings as a way of Life. He wants us to choose life, to choose love, above death and hate. Accepting the entirety of Christ’s being through the Eucharist opens us to the change that occurs with grace. It can also mean opening ourselves to the possibility of bias, derision, or even scorn. None of these, or even the sins of others, should deter us from this: we know that above all we serve God; and by serving others we imitate His Son. In the wake of the terrible news from Pennsylvania, we must remember several things: we must continue to pray for the victims of these betrayals and crimes; we must ensure the safety of all children and those whose care we are entrusted; and most importantly, we must not lose hope.

Keep close to your heart the words of Saint Paul, “that neither death nor life... nor principalities ... nor powers... nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” (Romans 8:38-39). Let us make the same choice as Joshua, Peter and countless other good men and women; let us serve the Lord!

~Fr. Posey

Welcome Back Students!

This week we welcome our students back from their summer break. The administration, faculty, and staff have been hard at work preparing for their arrival. Today, as we have done every autumn since 1906, we open our doors to a new generation, full of promise and hope. To these young students we owe a great deal, and it remains our mission to educate them to become men and women of faith and service. Please keep them and their families in prayer as they begin a new academic year. God bless them and remember to drive gently around campus!

Know Your Church History – The Council of Nicaea

Held in 325 AD, in the Bithynian city of Nicaea, now part of modern day Turkey, the Council of Nicaea was the Church’s first ecumenical conference. It was there, that the first uniform Christian doctrine, The Nicaean Creed, was established—in response to the Arian heresy. The Council also codified rules for priests, church construction, and the determination of the date for Easter. For a short video on the Council of Nicaea, and its aftermath, visit: https://bit.ly/2c1eMlF.

From our Bishop: Seek Help and Healing in the Midst of the Opioid Crisis

The opioid crisis has severely impacted the Diocese of Arlington, where opioid overdose deaths have increased threefold, and statewide, where opioid deaths jumped 200 percent. Join Bishop Michael Burbidge and Catholic Charities as we explore how we in the diocese can respond to this crisis. “Seeking Hope and Healing in the Opioid Crisis” is a free daylong conference on Saturday, September 29, 2018, the Feast of the Archangels, at Good Shepherd Catholic Church, 8710 Mount Vernon Hwy, Alexandria. Dr. Michael Horne, Catholic Charities psychologist, will give a keynote address. Bishop Burbidge will lead a prayer service. The daily parish Mass is available at 9 a.m., before the 10 a.m. – 3 p.m. conference. Please help us address this critical issue and invite others to come as well. Register by September 26 at: events@arlingtondiocese.org.

Food Distribution Needs Your Help – Food Request

We had a record summer attendance at our August 3rd Food Distribution. Our cupboards and bins are bare and food is desperately needed. If you are able, please donate any of the following items: canned protein (chicken, Vienna sausages, tuna, etc.), peanut butter, jelly, pasta, pasta sauce, bags of rice, bags of beans, hearty soups. Cans, plastic containers, bags and boxes are preferred. Glass makes our bags heavier. Items may be left in the back of the church and will be delivered by our wonderful volunteers to the Heller Hall kitchen. We sincerely appreciate your help.

New Mass of Special Intentions To Be Offered—Starting September 26

Beginning next month, St. James will offer a Mass of Special Intentions at 6:30pm on the fourth Wednesday. Our first Mass will be on September 26. Designed to meet the needs of our community, this Mass will provide an opportunity to bring spiritual requests to our parish family. We support one another in prayer as well as fellowship. We will have a book in the main vestibule in which you can add your intention. For more information, contact the rectory at 703-532-8815.

Know the Patron Saints: St. Barbara (3rd Century, A.D.), who lived in Heliopolis of Phoenicia, present-day Baalbek, Lebanon. was an early martyr for the Church. She is the patron saint of “armourers, artillerymen, military engineers, miners and others who work with explosives because of her old legend’s association with lightning, and also of mathematicians.” For a short video on St. Barbara, please visit: https://bit.ly/2vRCuMj
