“Rejoice in the Lord always. The Lord is near. … Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.” Phil 4:4-7

In this letter, Paul writes to the first community he began in Europe, that of Philippi. As with all of life’s “firsts,” this group held special affection in Paul’s heart. Scholars believe that he wrote this while imprisoned in Rome. If anyone had few reasons to “rejoice,” it would have been Paul. How could he possibly believe the “Lord is near” when experiencing such profound degradation? How could he have “no anxiety?” His life was in the balance, his care and concerns for his brethren ever-present. How could he ever find that joy? How could he (and even we in some circumstances) expect to radiate the glow of Gaudete Sunday?

I’m reminded of a recent conversation with one of my staff. She spoke of attending a retirement party for one of the workers at her local Giant. This woman, who had fled Vietnam as a child, found safety and security in Paris, risked all by immigrating to the States. She started a family, her daughters speaking of their parents working in shifts to raise them, sacrificing time, and often sleep, for their benefit. Sadly, her husband developed ALS, also known as Lou Gehrig’s Disease. A terrible affliction which progressively robs the patient of their ability to stand, walk, talk and, eventually, breathe. It was a joyful spirit she presented to others. “I am blessed,” she would say. Her smile, her acts of kindness, inquiring after people’s families, praying always for the imprisoned or afflicted made her beloved not only to her own family but to her surrounding community as well.

My staff member recalled asking her how she did it; how could she possibly come to work every day with joy on her face, if not concern in her heart? “I believe in my Savior; I believe in the people around me; I believe Jesus comes to me when I see you when we share a laugh or a prayer.” For this woman, her anxieties were real; she did not discount them. But she found things in her life for which to be thankful. She found examples of the nearness of our Lord.

This Gaudete Sunday, Nicolas Rugo asks in his Advent reflection for what can we be thankful? I would add, ask yourself how you can see Christ in your own life, and even more importantly, how can others see Him in you?

Thank you to everyone who made our Country Christmas such a success; I am grateful to all our volunteers who braved the North Pole-like elements; Bishop O’Connell’s singers and bands, my staff (especially our facilities crew of Vince Dufrane, Miguel Cruz, Sig Ayala Giovanni Ramirez, and Paul Pacheco) and of course, Head Elves: Maureen Hannan, Anita Clark, Jean Whitesell, and Sara Tindall, who once again will remain on the “Nice” list.

~ Fr. Posey

IHM Sisters Renewed Vows To Christ on December 8

Our IHM Sisters renewed their vows to Christ on Sunday, December 8, during the 8:30am Mass. The Mass celebrated the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception which is the Feast Day for IHM Sisters. Father Posey thanked the Sisters for all they contribute to our Parish community, and for being faithful servants of Christ.

Father Posey noted that the Congregation of the Sister, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, have been an integral part of the St. James community since 1923, when six Sisters arrived to run St. James School, which at the time had 92 students. Under the leadership of the Sisters, the school population grew to a population of 2,000 students in the 40’s and 50s. Today, the Sister’s ministry includes running the School, ministering to the sick and homebound parishioners, and overseeing our Parish Religious Education Program, among other duties.
