Reflection Question: What courage must it have took for the prodigal son to return? Would you have that courage?
Stewardship: Second Collection Today is for Catholic Relief Services

This week, we take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection to help Jesus in disguise. This collection helps six Catholic agencies provide relief and support to struggling communities and work for peace and reconciliation among our marginalized brothers and sisters here and around the world. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the collection. Learn more about the collection at www.usccb.org/catholic-relief.

Thank you for your generosity.
“My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.”

So much has been written about today’s Gospel. Its themes about loss and forgiveness have been re-interpreted in plays, music, and art. We have replayed them in our own lives: An errant friend who only calls when convenient or when they want something from you; a spouse or significant other who plays ping pong with your emotions; and of course, children. The latter is more familiar in re-tellings because we are all children of our parents. Generous love, so freely given and yet sometimes so freely taken for granted; unconditional in nature, this kind of love seeks nothing for itself, seeks no benefit from its granting, but rather, yearns only for the good of the receiver.

I’ve talked with many parents over the years; counseled and offered pastoral care to those struggling with children going through difficult times: drug use, unemployment, mental illness, etc. These and so many other issues try their patience as well as their souls. They want their children safe and healthy. Most were not angry with God, but simply worn down by sorrow and feelings of helplessness. The revolving doors became fixtures of their lives: support offered, then spurned, then sought again.

How difficult, too, for those who were always there, who were the “obedient son” or prayerful scribe? Dutiful and faithful, how could they be on par with those who callously, or at least unwittingly, came again and again for one more chance?

But in this powerful parable, Jesus reminds all of us that we are indeed equal before the Father. Another’s “sins” do not lessen the good received by the followers. As we saw last week, God is a patient gardener. His generosity, as His forgiveness, is freely given.

As much as this parable is about forgiveness, it is also about hope and opportunity. Much like the fig tree from last week, the Prodigal Son leaves us with the prospect of growth. Given the possibility of atonement, that son might repair his life and his relationships. Hope springs eternal in the garden and today’s reading. How much kinder would our world be if we offered that hope to others? How much kinder would it be if we offered it to ourselves? The Light is On for you to find that gift; we are here to share that promise with you. God bless~Fr. Posey

The Stations of the Cross
Every Friday night during Lent, and on Good Friday, we offer Stations of the Cross to all those who wish to reflect on Christ’s passion. Did you ever wonder where the tradition started? According to Church sources, pilgrims first began to visit the Via Dolorosa (Sorrowful Way), the route of Christ’s journey to His crucifixion, in 313AD. In the early 1400s, the Ottoman Empire blocked access to the holy sites in Jerusalem, prompting churches to put up their Stations of the Cross, the first appearing in the early 1400s. In the 1600s and 1700s, various Popes allowed all Catholic churches to place their Stations so that the faithful could better understand Christ’s sacrifice. We hope that you will join us on Fridays throughout Lent, and, especially on Good Friday, to pray the Stations of the Cross. For a video explaining each Station and its significance, please visit https://bit.ly/2HAr875. For more history, visit https://bit.ly/2Hv1y2w.

Focus on Hunger-St. James Food Distribution

“I see Jesus in every human being. I say to myself, this is hungry Jesus I must feed him.” Mother Theresa

On the first Friday of the month, 125-150 families come to pray together and receive groceries from St. James Parish. Several years ago, the Outreach Committee became aware of many needy families living within a 10-minute walk of St. James Church. A census conducted by committee members determined that their chronic need was food -- especially at the beginning of the month when rent was due. We began our monthly food distributions to address this need. Today, the families who are in need live throughout the Falls Church area. Please consider donating 1-lb bags of rice or kidney beans, boxes of cereal, tuna, peanut butter, jelly, and hearty soups. You can place your donations in the boxes near the doors of the Church after any mass. Besides donating food, this program can use your help in two ways: 1) If you have a large vehicle and can help us transport food, or 2) If you are an individual who speaks Spanish who can help us with registration. Please contact Gay Fantozzi by email at motzof4@gmail.com or by phone at 571-282-3803 for more information.

40 Days of Life Vigil—Through April 14

The “40 Days for Life” vigil is taking place through April 14 on the sidewalk outside 900 S. Washington Street (Lee Hwy), where the "Falls Church Healthcare Center" abortion clinic is located. Street parking is available on the George Mason Rd. and Greenway Blvd. before 8am and after 5pm. Between 8am-5pm, you can park on Cameron Rd., one block from the site. Get more information and sign up for vigil hours at https://bit.ly/1FIFdJr. Signing up is not required, but it does help us identify gaps. Don’t forget, the St. James Pro-Life Group is meeting on Thursday, April 4, from 7:30pm to 9:00pm in the Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9). Be sure to attend to find out more about what you can do to take a stand for life!

The Light is On For You

Don’t forget, every Wednesday evening from 6:30pm to 8:00pm, “The Light Is On For You” at St. James. Priests will be on-hand to hear your confession, and you will have the opportunity to engage in Eucharistic adoration as well. These evenings will help you draw closer to God as you prepare yourself to greet our Lord on Easter morning.

¡La Luz está Encendida Para Ti!

No se olvide, todos los Miércoles por la noche de 6:30 pm a 8:00pm, la "La Luz Está Encendida Para Ti" en St. James. Los sacerdotes estarán a su disposición para escuchar su confesión, y tendrán la oportunidad de participar también en la adoración eucarística. Éstas tardes te ayudarán a acercarte a Dios mientras te preparas para saludar a nuestro Señor en la mañana de Pascua.
