On The Way

Post Lenten Thank You!

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. Although it's a fitting day for many different reflections (seeing that mercy is central to our faith), I'd like to take this space to express my thanks to the many volunteers who make such an enormous difference at Saint James. Now, I can't possibly list every group, but all the work during Lent and Holy Week deserves recognition.

Now, some people don't want to be mentioned, so I'm not going to name names. But...the volunteers deserve some recognition, if only by group. And since it doesn't look like we'll be able to have our volunteer appreciation dinner (again) this seems a fitting time to do so.

First, thank you to the Lenten fish fry crew! The fish fry provides great food and raises money for our social outreach. It also provides an opportunity for different parishioners to come together, get to know each other, and to be of service. Building on last year's success, the fish fry was entirely drive-thru this year. And as anyone driving down Broad Street or Park Avenue on a Friday in Lent knows...it was a hit. Popping by to visit the volunteers (and pick up some fish) is fun, but also a little intimidating. The hustle and bustle of that well-oiled machine is a marvel to watch, and I was always concerned about messing up the process somehow. My only complaint is that the fish fry is so much fun...and delicious...that it doesn't seem quite penitential enough for Lent!

The Social Outreach Committee. This group does great work on behalf of the poor in our area. This past March, the monthly Food Distribution fell on the same night as the second fish fry. It was great to see both groups collaborating, building community, and serving others. I'm so grateful that the SOC reminds us of the needs of the poor and provides opportunities to help them.

Our ushers. We priests rely on the ushers far more than most people realize. With our increased Mass schedule and the needed wiping down of the pews, the ushers have had more on their plate than before. They've handled it wonderfully. Thank you especially to all those who stepped up since Masses returned last May.

Our lectors. As for the ushers, the extra Sunday Mass and all the different liturgies for Holy Week have meant more work for our lectors. They've shown themselves more than capable! Again, I'm grateful to those who answered the request for more volunteers last Spring. We've added a good number of new lectors.

Our sacristans. Okay, here I'm lumping together a number of different groups. Point is, as with any production, Catholic liturgy depends on a lot of behind-the-scenes preparations. The flowers, linens, altar cloths, candles, sacred vessels, etc. These all lend a beauty and dignity to the Mass that we don't notice...until it's gone. The attention and care given to such details and by so many volunteers is a true blessing. It goes a long way in making our liturgies so beautiful.

Yes, I'm sure I've missed someone. That's the danger of giving public thanks. But neither can I let that prevent me from expressing my gratitude. If you're interested in volunteering, please click "Communities and Ministries" on our parish website.

Adult Volunteers Needed for Work Camp—June 20-24

Adult volunteers are needed to be crew leaders and contractors for WorkCamp from June 20-24. If you are handy with home repairs and are available to work at least Monday—Thursday, please consider being a contractor for our team. WorkCamp is local this year, so hours will run from morning Mass until around 7:30pm, when dinner and program are over each night. Crew leaders must be at least 25 years old and will spend the week with a group of five teens working with the contractor on service projects such as painting, home repairs, yard work, etc. Crew leaders do not need to be skilled in repair work but are responsible for the safety and care of their team. Virtus compliancy is required, and training is available if have not yet been certified. Please consider giving your time and energy. Contact Karen Graffam interested, klgraffam@gmail.com.

Church During COVID-19

In keeping with the Governor's executive orders, please observe social distancing and wear a mask when in the church.

Receiving Communion at the Communion Rail

Since the beginning of the pandemic, we have been distributing Holy Communion at the altar rail. We find this helps us distribute Communion both reverently and safely. As more people return to Mass it also might take some getting used to. Please make note of these instructions.

- There are Crosses six feet apart along the step of the rail.
- When coming forward for Communion, please go to the Cross farthest from you in your section (i.e. in the center or on the sides).
- Stand or kneel at that Cross.
- The minister will bring you Communion.
- If receiving Communion in the hand, please remove your mask first, then receive the Host.
- Consume the Host while at the altar rail and then return to your seat.
- Please remember that members of the same household do not have to practice social distancing and may stand (or kneel) together at the rail.
- Once those in the transepts have received, those coming down the main aisle should use the spaces on the sides of the communion rail as well as the front.

Come Grow with the Creation Ministry!

The Creation Care Ministry will be planting the parish garden behind the House of Ministries Saturday, April 24 at 10:00am. This year, the garden will be much bigger than last year and we'd love your help that morning and all summer! No prior gardening knowledge is necessary.

Please say a prayer for the success of the garden, the gardeners and all the recipients of the produce. If you would like to donate seeds, seedlings, plants, tools, compost, or want more information, please email Zoey Maraist at zoeydimauro@gmail.com.

St. Lucy Food Drive For Catholic Charities - May 15

St. James Social Outreach Committee will host a Pop-n-Go Food Drive on Saturday, May 15 from 10:00am to 2:00pm in B-Lot. The drive benefits Catholic Charities' St. Lucy Food Project, so that they may help those in our area who have been severely impacted by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic which has left one in five Virginians facing food insecurity.

This will be a no-contact event. Put the items in your trunks, drive up, pop the trunk, and volunteers will remove the donations, and then you go! The program needs: rice (1-2 bags), cereals, pasta & pasta sauce, peanut butter, jam/jelly, canned meat, tuna, canned fruit, canned veggies, and cooking oil. Please no glass jars. Thank you for your generous support.

2021 Virtual Cocktail Party & Auction Please join us on May 15th by registering now!

All parish and school families are invited to the 2021 Saint James School Virtual Cocktail Party and Auction. It will be short and sweet – 7:00pm to 8:15pm.
