From Our Bishop

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

It is a great privilege for me to greet you on this first Christmas as your bishop. I am so very grateful for the gracious welcome you have extended to me and for the assurance of your continued prayers.

At Christmas, we sing "Joy to the World." However, this is more than a seasonal carol. It is the hope and prayer that we hold deep within our hearts. Genuine and lasting joy is found only in an intimate relationship with Jesus, the Son of God, the Son of Mary, the Savior of the World.

As we celebrate the great feast of Christmas, may we be renewed in our commitments to stay close to the Lord by faithfully attending Mass, by frequently celebrating God's mercy in the Sacrament of Penance, by praying daily and by imitating the Lord's humble and sacrificial service especially in our compassionate care of those in most need. When we live in such a way, we will know genuine joy and will be instruments in bringing that precious gift to all the world.

It is my hope and prayer that through the intercession of Mary and Joseph, our Lord Jesus will abundantly bless you with His peace and joy throughout the Christmas season and always.

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael F. Burbidge
Bishop of Arlington

From Our Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Christ is born to us, let us rejoice in the day of our salvation!

Pope Francis said in his Christmas homily last year, "Let us open our hearts to receive the grace of this day, which is Christ himself. A day of mercy, in which God our Father has revealed his great tenderness to the entire world. A day of light, which dispels the darkness of fear and anxiety. A day of peace, which makes reconciliation. A day of joy: a 'great joy' for the poor, the lowly and for all the people." (cf. Lk 2:10)

On this day, Jesus, the Savior, is born of the Virgin Mary. The manger became a symbol of humility and a great demonstration of the Father's love for us. Instead of a royal palace, Jesus was born in a simple manger. From the beginning, Our Lord showed what has real value: not the building of birth, but the people who occupied that building. Jesus values family, strangers, kings, and shepherds. All came to worship and adore Him. As we celebrate His birth, let us spiritually come and bow down by the crib.

With the shepherds, let us bow down before the Lamb, let us worship God's goodness made flesh, and let us allow tears of repentance to fill our eyes and cleanse our hearts.

What gift will we bring to the infant? Will it be a new and deeper commitment to seeking out the Lord, like the shepherds? Will it be recognizing the true King, like the Magi? The earthly royalty knew that they needed to bow down to the heavenly King. They gave to Jesus gifts of respect, acknowledging that the One before them is worthy of all honors. Do we also recognize the Lord by bringing Him our gifts of service, commitment, and love?

Again, Pope Francis said, "Today, then, let us together rejoice in the day of our salvation. As we contemplate the crib, let us gaze on the open arms of Jesus, which show us the merciful embrace of God, as we hear the cries of the Child who whispers to us: 'for my brethren and companions' sake, I will say: Peace be with you.'" (Ps 121[122]:8)

My gift to you is my prayer that God will continue to shower His peace, mercy, care and love upon you and your family; that you will be a beacon of hope to all those who are in your lives; that people will encounter Jesus, as the best gift of all, through you. Know of my prayers; please keep me in yours.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

Fr. Posey

What is Light Your Heart with the Word?

Fr. Posey recently explained:

"Light Your Heart with the Word is an initiative designed to help us prepare ourselves to receive the Word when it is proclaimed at Mass. By reading and reflecting on the Sunday readings during the prior week, we can prepare our hearts to receive the Word of God more readily, so that we can truly listen to what is being said during the Mass. When we listen with an open heart, we invite Christ to dwell in us and be our light."

Weekly reflection questions and videos are an easy way to participate. Visit www.stjamescatholic.org/light for more details.

December 25 - Christmas Day

Readings: Isaiah 52:7-10, Psalm 98:1, 2-3, 3-4, 5-6, Hebrews 1:1-6, John 1:1-5, 9-14

<http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/122516-day.cfm>

In this week's video, Jim Beckman reflects on how the prologue to John's Gospel, which is read at most Christmas Masses this year, reveals our loving God's plan for His Son and for us, His people.

Whatever our current circumstance may be, we can recognize in our heart that God will take care of us. Take comfort and hope in that reality. God has a plan! We live in a busy world filled with noise and chaos. Ask God how He wants to help you find the quiet and peace to be present with Him, the Word made flesh, dwelling among us.

Reflection question: What is one concrete thing you can do each day this week to spend time with the babe in the manger?

Videos are available to everyone weekly via our parish website and on the home page at formed.org. They are updated on Mondays. Journals with more reflection opportunities are available to subscribers – subscribe for free with our parish code – 8D46B7 (case sensitive)

Christmas Season Reflections for the People of St. James

January 1 - Solemnity of Mary

Readings: Numbers 6:22-27; Psalm 67:2-3, 5,6, 8; Galatians 4:4-7; Luke 2:16-21

<http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/010117.cfm>

In this week's video, Fr. Riley shares the history of the title "Mother of God" and how Mary teaches us to pray. Luke reports that she "kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart" (2:19), thus providing us with an example that we can follow to grow closer to God. The rosary works as a school of prayer when we move beyond simply reciting the oral prayers from memory and open our hearts to contemplate the mysteries of the life of Jesus. God uses the rosary to draw us closer to Him.

Reflection question: How can praying the rosary and other contemplative prayers fortify you to imitate the shepherds and share the Good News?

January 8 – Epiphany

Readings: Isaiah 60:16; Psalm 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13; Ephesians 3:2, 5-6; Matthew 2:2-12

<http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/010817.cfm>

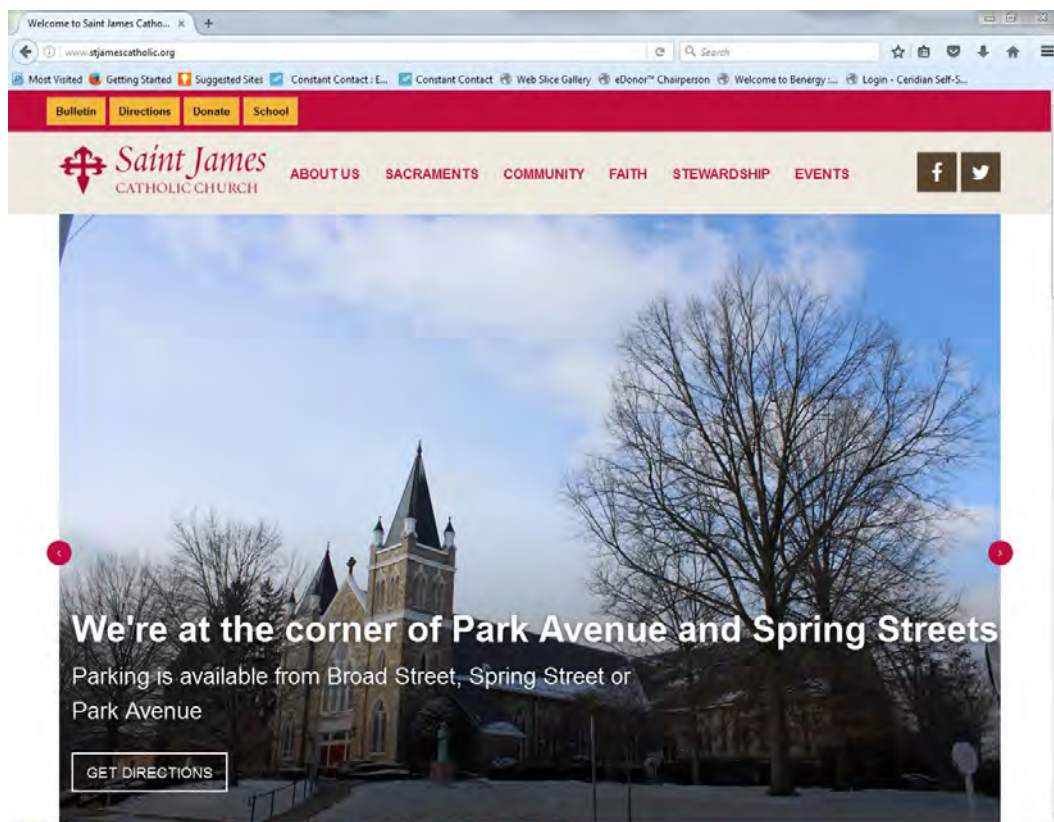

In this week's video, Jim Beckman offers some context to the journey of the Magi and Herod's fearful response to the news they carried. Since Herod himself was not a Jew, he was afraid that Jesus would take his place. The magi, on the other hand, responded with faith to the signs and prophecies they saw and made an offering of their most valuable gifts to the child Jesus. Similarly, at Mass we listen to the Word of God and respond by offering ourselves to Jesus, now present in the Eucharist.

Reflection Question: How can you offer Jesus the gift of yourself in your daily life?
