Gregory J. Cappello, Sr., Joins Monroe Township Public Schools as Assistant Superintendent of Schools, K-12

Monroe Township Public Schools is pleased to announce a new member of their Central Office Administrative Team.

Gregory J. Cappello, Sr., will soon be serving as the new Assistant Superintendent of Schools K-12. Mr. Cappello joins the staff with a plethora of experience ranging from Educational Leadership to Law. He has been employed with the Camden County Technical School District since 2008, first as Athletic Director and working his way to Assistant Principal and finally to Principal. He attended Rutgers University, Wilmington University and Rowan University.

Mr. Cappello has coached high school football, wrestling, basketball and track. He earned First Year Honors and Dean's List while at Rutgers Law and Most Outstanding Senior at Rowan University. He served as the Anti-Bullying Specialist, chaired the School Safety Committee and chaired the District and School Crisis Response Plans. During his tenure at the Pennsauken Campus, he was recognized as a Distinguished School of Excellence by the State and Federal Department of Education, was recognized as a National and New Jersey School of Character, and was awarded a Bronze Medal of US News and World Report.

Gregory and his wife, Marianne, have four children and reside in Marlton. His hobbies include Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, MMA, Karate and Boxing.

Please join the staff at Monroe Township Public Schools in welcoming Gregory J. Cappello, Sr. to our district.
