

School District Census

We need your help – as a public school district, we are required to maintain a census of all residents up to age 21 living within the Kimberly Area School District. This information is used for things such as:

- Projecting and planning for future school enrollment
- Communicating to parents when developmental screenings are taking place
- Communicating about kindergarten registration

You can help by completing this form and returning it to:

Attn: Census, Kimberly Area School District, 425 S. Washington St., Combined Locks, WI 54113
