To the extent that suspensions, expulsions or emergency expulsions may cumulatively or consecutively exceed ten (10) days, the principal shall notify relevant special education staff so that the District can ensure compliance with special education discipline procedures.

IV. NOTIFICATION OF RULES, POLICIES AND PROCEDURES RELATING TO STUDENT BEHAVIOR

- A. The publication will also define student rights and responsibilities relating to student behavior.

- C. The District will, in consultation with staff, students, students' families, and the community, periodically review and update the District's rules, policies and procedures related to student discipline. During the development and review of discipline policies and procedures, the District will use disaggregated data collected under RCW 28A.300.042 to:
 - 1. Monitor the impact of the District's discipline policies, procedures, and practices; and

V. RESPONSIBILITIES OF STAFF

A. Certificated staff will have the responsibility to:

- 1. Observe the rights of students;
- 2. Supervise student behavior and enforce the rules of student conduct fairly, consistently, and without discrimination. Any infractions will be reported orally and in writing to the principal as soon as possible regardless of any disciplinary actions taken by the teacher;

3. Maintain good order in the classroom, in the hallways, on the playgrounds or other common areas of the school, and on school buses (i.e., during field trips);

VI. DISCIPLINE FOR UNEXCUSED ABSENCES AND TARDINESS

- A. Students with one or more unexcused absences and/or tardiness and subject to compulsory attendance pursuant to Chapter 28A.225 RCW may have discipline imposed that is reasonably calculated to modify the student's conduct, provided that the District may not suspend or expel a student from school for absences and/or tardiness. However, if the District imposes discipline on a student for one or more unexcused absences, it shall:
1. Provide notice to the student's parent/guardian in writing in English or the primary language of the parent/guardian, that the student has failed to attend school without valid justification, and by any other means necessary to provide notice of these facts;

VII. ALTERNATIVE FORMS OF DISCIPLINE AND DISCRETIONARY DISCIPLINE

- A. The Board encourages the use of alternative forms of discipline when possible and practicable in light of the duty to maintain safe and orderly school environments conducive to student learning. District administrators may consider alternative forms of discipline—including programs intended to lessen the time of exclusion from class attendance—which have been approved by the Board and/or Superintendent. These alternative forms of discipline include the student discipline detailed in Section X of this Procedure and may also include the use of best practices and strategies included in the state menu for behavior developed under RCW 28A.165.035.
- B. District administrators must impose alternative forms of discipline for incidents of behavioral violations prior to imposing a suspension or expulsion for the same type of behavioral violations.
- C. At all times and as early as possible, the District must provide for early involvement of parents in efforts to support students in meeting behavioral expectation and must make every reasonable attempt to involve the student and parents in the resolution of behavioral violations.
- D. The District may not administer any discipline in a manner that would result in the denial or delay of a nutritionally adequate meal to the student or prevent a student from accomplishing a specific academic grade, subject, or graduation requirement.

VIII. CLASSROOM EXCLUSION AND EMERGENCY CLASSROOM EXCLUSION

- A. Emergency Classroom Exclusion— When student's presence poses an immediate and continuing danger or threat
 1. A student may be excluded immediately from a class or subject by a teacher, administrator, or other staff as designated by the Superintendent and sent to the principal or a designated school official, without first attempting discipline, provided that the teacher or administrator has good and sufficient reason to believe that the student's presence poses:
 - a. An immediate and continuing danger to the student, other students or staff; or

The meeting will take place no later than the beginning of the school day following the student's emergency exclusion. The teacher or administrator who emergency excluded the student will be notified of the discipline taken or initiated.
4. The District will provide the student an opportunity to make up any assignments and tests missed during classroom exclusion.

B. Classroom Exclusion – When student's presence does not pose an immediate and continuing danger or threat

1. Teachers have the right to exclude any student who creates a disruption of the educational process in violation of building disciplinary standards, while under the teacher's supervision, from his/her individual classroom or instructional or activity area for all or any portion of the balance of the school day or until the principal or designee and teacher have conferred, whichever occurs first.
2. The teacher will attempt one or more forms of discipline prior to excluding the student.
3. A student that has been excluded may not return to the class during the balance of that class or activity period without the consent of the teacher or until the principal and the teacher have conferred, whichever occurs first.
4. A student may not be removed from school during a classroom exclusion unless the District provides notice and due process for a suspension, expulsion, or emergency expulsion.
5. Following a classroom exclusion, the teacher will report the exclusion, including the behavioral violation that led to the classroom exclusion to the principal or designee as soon as reasonably possible. The teacher, principal or designee will notify the student's parents of the classroom exclusion as soon as reasonably possible. The notification will be in a language understood by the parents. The principal or designee will meet with the student as soon as reasonably possible following the exclusion and take or initiate appropriate discipline, if any. The meeting will take place no later than the beginning of the school day following the student's exclusion. The teacher who excluded the student will be notified of the discipline taken or initiated.
6. The District will provide the student an opportunity to make up any assignments and tests missed during classroom exclusion.

XI. SHORT-TERM SUSPENSION

A. Conditions and Limitations

1. The District must provide for early involvement of parents in efforts to support students in meeting behavioral expectation and must make every reasonable attempt to involve the student and parents in the resolution of behavioral violations.
2. Before administering any suspension, the District will consider the student's individual circumstances and the nature and circumstances of the behavioral violation to determine whether a short-term suspension, and the length of the suspension, is warranted. The nature and circumstances of the student conduct violation must reasonably warrant a short-term suspension.
3. No student will be suspended for a short term unless the District has first attempted one or more other forms of discipline to support the student in meeting behavioral expectations.
4. A short-term suspension may not be for an indefinite period of time and must have an end date. No student will be short-term suspended beyond the school year in which the behavioral violation occurred.
5. No student in grades kindergarten through fourth grade will be suspended for more than a total of ten (10) school days during any single semester or trimester and no loss of academic grades or credit will be imposed by reason of the suspension.
6. No student in fifth grade and above will be suspended for more than a total of fifteen (15) school days during any single semester or ten (10) school days during any single trimester.
7. Any student who has been short-term suspended will be provided the opportunity upon return to make up assignments and tests missed during the suspension if the assignments or tests have a substantial effect upon the student's grades or failure to complete such assignments or tests would result in denial of credit.

8. After suspending a student, the District must make reasonable efforts to return the student to the student's regular educational setting as soon as possible and allow the student to petition for readmission at any time.

B. Special Education

The principal will notify the Director of Special Education of any short-term suspensions to be imposed for a student who is currently eligible for special education services or those who might be deemed eligible for special education. To the extent that short-term suspensions may cumulatively or consecutively exceed ten school (10) days (see Procedure 2161P, Special Education and Related Services for Eligible Students, Discipline section), the principal will immediately notify relevant special education staff so that the District can ensure that special education discipline procedures are in place, in addition to general education discipline procedures.

C. Prior to Imposing Short-Term Suspension

1. Initial Hearing with Student

- a. Before administering any short-term suspension, the principal or designee must conduct an informal initial hearing with the student for the purpose of hearing the student's perspective. At the initial hearing, the principal or designee must provide the student:
 - i. Notice of the student's behavioral violation of the District's discipline policy;
 - ii. An explanation of the evidence regarding the behavioral violation;
 - iii. An explanation of the discipline that may be administered; and
 - iv. An opportunity for the student to share the student's perspective and provide explanation regarding the behavioral violation.
- b. Parent participation. At an initial hearing in which the principal or designee is considering administering a short-term suspension, the principal or designee must provide the student an opportunity for the student to contact the student's parents.
- c. Administrative Decision. Following the initial hearing, the principal or designee must inform the student of the decision regarding the behavioral violation, including the date on which any short-term suspension will begin and end.
- d. Language Assistance. The District must ensure that the initial hearing is held in a language the student and parents understand, which may require language assistance for students and parents with limited-English proficiency under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

2. Notice to Student and Parents

- a. Before administering any short-term suspension, the District must attempt to notify the student's parents, as soon as reasonably possible, regarding the behavioral violation.

b. Written notice

No later than one (1) school business day following the initial hearing with the student, the District must provide written notice of the short-term suspension to the student and parents in person, by mail, or by email. The written notice must include:

- i. A description of the student's behavioral violation and how the behavior violated the District's policy;
- ii. The duration and conditions of the short-term suspension, including the dates on which the short-term suspension will begin and end;
- iii. The other forms of discipline that the District considered or attempted, and an explanation of the district's decision to administer the short-term suspension;
- iv. The opportunity to receive educational services during the short-term suspension;
- v. The student's and parents' right to an informal conference with the principal or designee; and
- vi. The student's and parents' right to appeal the short-term suspension, including where and to whom the appeal must be requested.

c. Language assistance

The District must ensure the initial and written notices required under this section are provided in a language the student and parents understand, which may require language assistance for students and parents with limited-English proficiency under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

D. In-school suspension

1. Students who are denied attendance at school are denied the opportunity to learn. The District has therefore created an in-school suspension program which temporarily removes the student from his/her regular learning environment but permits the student to maintain his/her educational progress.
2. The District must provide for early involvement of parents in efforts to support students in meeting behavioral expectation and must make every reasonable attempt to involve the student and parents in the resolution of behavioral violations.
3. Before administering any suspension, the District will consider the student's individual circumstances and the nature and circumstances of the behavioral violation to determine whether in-school suspension, and the length of the suspension, is warranted. The nature and circumstances of the student conduct violation must reasonably warrant an in-school suspension.

4. No student will be given in-school suspension unless the District has first attempted one or more other forms of discipline to support the student in meeting behavioral expectations.
5. No student will be given in-school suspension beyond the school year in which the behavioral violation occurred.
6. No student in grades kindergarten through fourth grade will be given in-school suspension for more than a total of ten (10) school days during any single semester or trimester and no loss of academic grades or credit will be imposed by reason of the in-school suspension.
7. No student in fifth grade and above will be given in-school suspension for more than a total of fifteen (15) school days during any single semester or ten (10) school days during any single trimester.
8. In-school suspension shall not exceed ten (10) consecutive school days. An in-school suspension is no different from any other short-term suspension, and therefore triggers the same substantive and procedural due process, including student and parent/guardian notification.
9. Students who are assigned to in-school suspension are granted this opportunity as a privilege and are expected to comply with the expectations of staff.
10. Guidelines for in-school suspension are as follows:
 - a. A student who is afforded the opportunity to be assigned to in-school suspension must agree to the conditions specified by the principal.
 - b. In-school suspension is designed to encourage learning. Students will be expected to work on their classroom assignments at all times.
 - c. A student in in-school suspension will attend a single subject or class or any full schedule of subjects or classes in a separate location on school property from their regular subject or class or schedule and/or classmates.
 - d. The student may be denied the opportunity to participate in any school activities while in in-school suspension, as determined in the principal's sole discretion.
 - e. While in-school suspended, the student and staff may develop a behavior contract that defines the future expected behavior of the student. District staff members who participated in the development of the behavior contract will sign the contract. District staff must use reasonable efforts to obtain the signatures of the student and his/her parents/guardians on the contract. A violation of the behavior contract may result in imposition in other discipline.
 - f. Any act of misconduct that violates school rules or District policy or procedure while in in-school suspension may result in imposition of other discipline.

- g. After a student is placed back into the regular classroom(s), the principal or designee or school counselor will monitor the student's progress within the next five (5) school days. The student will be encouraged to maintain a relationship with the school counselor as a means of dealing with any problems that arise.
- h. Specific rules and building procedures will be developed by the principal for in-school suspensions.
- i. When administering an in-school suspension, the District will ensure school personnel:
 - (1) Are physically in the same location as the student to provide direct supervision during the duration of the in-school suspension; and
 - (2) Are accessible to offer support to keep the student current with assignments and course work for all of the student's regular subjects or classes.

E. Reporting

Principals will report all short-term and in-school suspensions and the reasons therefor to the Superintendent or designee within twenty-four (24) hours after the imposition of the short-term or in-school suspension.

F. Continuation of Educational Services

The District will not suspend the provision of educational services during the period of the short-term suspension and will provide the student the opportunity to receive such services. The District will not administer discipline in a manner that would prevent a student from completing subject, grade-level, or graduation requirements. Educational services may be provided in an alternative setting, provided that such setting is comparable, equitable, and appropriate to the regular educational services a student would have received in the absence of a short-term suspension. Examples of alternative settings may include, but not limited to, alternative schools or classrooms, one-on-one tutoring when available, and online learning.

XII. LONG-TERM SUSPENSION

A. Conditions and Limitations

1. The District must provide for early involvement of parents in efforts to support students in meeting behavioral expectation and must make every reasonable attempt to involve the student and parents in the resolution of behavioral violations.
2. Before administering any long-term suspension, the District will consider the student's individual circumstances and the nature and circumstances of the behavioral violation to determine whether a long-term suspension, and the length of the suspension, is warranted. The nature and circumstances of the violation must reasonably warrant a long-term suspension. A student may be long-term suspended for violation of school rules or District policies or procedures; provided that a long-term suspension may not be imposed for discretionary discipline.

3. Before administering a long-term suspension, the District must consider other forms of discipline to support the student in meeting behavioral expectations. As a general rule, no student will be long-term suspended unless other forms of discipline have been considered to support student in meeting behavioral expectations.
4. Except for a violation of WAC 392-400-820, no student in grades kindergarten through fourth grade will be long-term suspended during any single semester or trimester and no loss of academic grades or credit will be imposed by reason of the suspension.
5. No student in fifth grade and above will be long-term suspended in a manner that causes the student to lose academic grades or credit for longer than one semester or trimester during the same school year.
6. The District may only administer a long-term suspension as follows:
 - a. For behavioral violations under RCW 28A.600.015 (6)(a) through (d); and
 - b. After the District has determined that, if the student returned to school before completing a long-term suspension:
 - i. The student would pose an imminent danger to students or school personnel; or
 - ii. The student would pose an imminent threat of material and substantial disruption of the educational process.
7. A long-term suspension cannot be imposed beyond the school year in which the alleged misbehavior occurs.
8. A long-term suspension must have an end date of not more than the length of an academic term from the time of the start date of the long-term suspension.
9. After suspending a student, the District must make reasonable efforts to return the student to the student's regular educational setting as soon as possible and allow the student to petition for readmission at any time.

B. Special Education

The principal will notify the Director of Special Education of any long-term suspensions to be imposed for a student who is currently eligible for special education services or those who might be deemed eligible for special education. When a long-term suspension is imposed (see Procedure 2161P, Special Education and Related Services for Eligible Students, Discipline section), the principal will immediately notify relevant special education staff so that the District can ensure that special education discipline procedures are in place, in addition to general education discipline procedures.

C. Prior to Imposing Long-Term Suspension

1. Initial Hearing with Student

- a. Before administering any long-term suspension, the principal or designee must conduct an informal initial hearing with the student for the purpose of hearing the student's perspective. At the initial hearing, the principal or designee must provide the student:
 - i. Notice of the student's behavioral violation of the District's discipline policy;
 - ii. An explanation of the evidence regarding the behavioral violation;
 - iii. An explanation of the discipline that may be administered; and
 - iv. An opportunity for the student to share the student's perspective and provide explanation regarding the behavioral violation.
- b. Parent participation. At an initial hearing in which the principal or designee is considering administering a long-term suspension, the principal or designee must make a reasonable attempt to contact the student's parents to provide an opportunity for the parents to participate in the initial hearing in person or by telephone.
- c. Administrative Decision. Following the initial hearing, the principal or designee must inform the student of the decision regarding the behavioral violation, including the date on which any long-term suspension will begin and end.
- d. Language Assistance. The District must ensure that the initial hearing is held in a language the student and parents understand, which may require language assistance for students and parents with limited-English proficiency under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

2. Notice to Student and Parents

- a. Before administering any long-term suspension, the District must attempt to notify the student's parents, as soon as reasonably possible, regarding the behavioral violation.

b. Written notice

No later than one (1) school business day following the initial hearing with the student in, the District must provide written notice of the long-term suspension to the student and parents in person, by mail, or by email. The written notice must include:

- i. A description of the student's behavioral violation and how the behavior violated the District's policy;
- ii. The duration and conditions of the long-term suspension, including the dates on which the long-term suspension will begin and end;
- iii. The other forms of discipline that the District considered or attempted, and an explanation of the district's decision to administer the long-term suspension;

- iv. The opportunity to receive educational services during the long-term suspension;
- v. The student's and parents' right to an informal conference with the principal or designee;
- vi. The student's and parents' right to appeal the long-term suspension, including where and to whom the appeal must be requested; and
- vii. The opportunity for the student and parents to participate in a reengagement meeting.

c. Language assistance

The District must ensure the initial and written notices required under this section are provided in a language the student and parents understand, which may require language assistance for students and parents with limited-English proficiency under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

D. Reporting

Principals will report all long-term suspensions and the reasons therefore to the Superintendent or designee within twenty-four (24) hours after the imposition of the long-term suspension.

E. Continuation of Educational Services

The District will not suspend the provision of educational services during the period of the long-term suspension and will provide the student the opportunity to receive such services. The District will not administer discipline in a manner that would prevent a student from completing subject, grade-level, or graduation requirements. Educational services may be provided in an alternative setting, provided that such setting is comparable, equitable, and appropriate to the regular educational services a student would have received in the absence of a long-term suspension. Examples of alternative settings may include, but not limited to, alternative schools or classrooms, one-on-one tutoring when available, and online learning.

XIII. EXPULSION

A. Conditions and Limitations

1. The District must provide for early involvement of parents in efforts to support students in meeting behavioral expectation and must make every reasonable attempt to involve the student and parents in the resolution of behavioral violations.
2. Before administering an expulsion, the District must consider the student's individual circumstances and the nature and circumstances of the behavioral violation to determine whether the expulsion, and the length of expulsion is warranted. The nature and circumstances of the violation must reasonably warrant the harshness of expulsion. A student may be expelled for violation of school rules or District policies or procedures; provided that an expulsion may not be imposed for discretionary discipline.

3. Before administering an expulsion, the District must consider other forms of discipline to support the student in meeting behavioral expectations. No student shall be expelled unless:
 - a. Other forms of discipline reasonably calculated to modify the student's conduct have failed; or
 - b. There is good reason to believe that other forms of discipline would fail if used.
4. An expulsion of a student may not be for an indefinite period of time and must have an end date. An expulsion may not exceed the length of an academic term from the time of the start date of the expulsion unless extended pursuant to Section XIX of this Procedure.
5. Except for violations of WAC 392-400-820, the District may not administer an expulsion for any student in kindergarten through fourth grade.
6. Pursuant to RCW 28A.600.420, any elementary or secondary school student who is determined to have carried a firearm onto, or to have possessed a firearm on, public elementary or secondary school premises, public school-provided transportation, or areas of facilities while being used exclusively by public schools, will be expelled for not less than one calendar year. The Superintendent of the District may modify the expulsion of the student on a case-by-case basis
7. The District may only administer an expulsion as follows:
 - a. For behavioral violations under RCW 28A.600.015 (6)(a) through (d); and
 - b. After the District has determined that if the student returned to school before completing an expulsion, the student would pose an imminent danger to students or school personnel.
8. After expelling a student, the District must make reasonable efforts to return the student to the student's regular educational setting as soon as possible and allow the student to petition for readmission at any time.

B. Special Education

The principal will notify Director of Special Education of any long-term suspensions to be imposed for a student who is currently eligible for special education services or those who might be deemed eligible for special education. When a long-term suspension is imposed (see Procedure 2161P, Special Education and Related Services for Eligible Students, Discipline section), the principal will immediately notify relevant special education staff so that the District can ensure that special education discipline procedures are in place, in addition to general education discipline procedures.

C. Prior to Imposing Expulsion

1. Initial Hearing with Student

- a. Before administering any expulsion, the principal or designee must conduct an informal initial hearing with the student for the purpose of hearing the student's perspective. At the initial hearing, the principal or designee must provide the student:

E. Continuation of Educational Services

The District will not suspend the provision of educational services during the period of the expulsion and will provide the student the opportunity to receive such services. The District will not administer discipline in a manner that would prevent a student from completing subject, grade-level, or graduation requirements. Educational services may be provided in an alternative setting, provided that such setting is comparable, equitable, and appropriate to the regular educational services a student would have received in the absence of an expulsion. Examples of alternative settings may include, but not limited to, alternative schools or classrooms, one-on-one tutoring when available, and online learning.

XIV. EMERGENCY EXPULSION

A. Conditions and Limitations

1. A student may be expelled immediately for violation of school rules or District policies or procedures; provided that an emergency expulsion may not be imposed for discretionary discipline and further provided that the Superintendent or designee has good and sufficient reason to believe that the student's presence poses:

- a. An immediate and continuing danger to other students or school staff; or
 - b. An immediate and continuing threat of substantial disruption of the educational process.
2. For purposes of this section, an immediate and continuing threat of material and substantial disruption of the educational process means:
 - a. The student's behavior results in an extreme disruption of the educational process that creates a substantial barrier to learning for other students across the school day; and
 - b. School personnel have exhausted reasonable attempts at administering other forms of discipline to support the student in meeting behavioral expectations.
 3. An emergency expulsion may not be imposed solely for the purposes of investigating student behavioral violation.
 4. An emergency expulsion must end or be converted to another form of discipline within ten (10) school days of the start of the emergency expulsion. If the emergency expulsion is converted to another form of discipline, the District will provide the student and the student's parents/guardians with notice and due process rights appropriate for the new discipline.
 5. After suspending a student, the District must make reasonable efforts to return the student to the student's regular educational setting as soon as possible and allow the student to petition for readmission at any time.

B. Special Education

The principal will notify the Director of Special Education of any emergency expulsion to be imposed for a student who is currently eligible for special education services or those who might be deemed eligible for special education. When a long-term suspension is imposed (see Procedure 2161P, Special Education and Related Services for Eligible Students, Discipline section), the principal will immediately notify relevant special education staff so that the District can ensure that special education discipline procedures are in place, in addition to general education discipline procedures.

C. Imposing an Emergency Expulsion

1. Initial notice

After an emergency expulsion, the District must attempt to notify the student's parents, as soon as reasonably possible, regarding the reason the district believes the student's presence poses an immediate and continuing danger to other students or school personnel, or an immediate and continuing threat of material and substantial disruption of the educational process.

2. Written notice

Within twenty-four (24) hours after an emergency expulsion, the District must provide written notice of the emergency expulsion to the student and parents in person, by mail, or by email. The written notice must include:

- a. The reason the student's presence poses an immediate and continuing danger to students or school personnel, or poses an immediate and continuing threat of material and substantial disruption of the educational process;
- b. The duration and conditions of the emergency expulsion, including the dates on which the emergency expulsion will begin and end;
- c. The opportunity to receive educational services during the emergency expulsion;

D. Conversion of Emergency Expulsion

1. If the principal converts the emergency expulsion to another form of discipline prior to the hearing provided for in this Procedure, then the principal shall provide notice of the new discipline to the student and to the student's parents/guardians, as required by this Procedure for the new discipline. Additionally, any days that the student was emergency expelled before the conversion must be applied to the total length of the suspension or expulsion.
2. In the event that the principal converts the emergency expulsion to a long-term suspension or an expulsion as permitted above and the student and/or the student's parents have made a request for hearing under this Procedure for the emergency expulsion, the hearing officer has the authority to consolidate any hearings or appeals requested by the student or the student's parents/guardians for the emergency expulsion, expulsion and/or long-term suspension so that the hearing officer may decide all issues in a single hearing and written decision.

E. Reporting

1. Principals will report all emergency expulsions and the reasons the student's presence poses an immediate and continuing danger to other students or school staff to the Superintendent or designee within twenty-four (24) hours after the start of the emergency expulsion.
2. Principals will bring the emergency expulsion to the attention of appropriate local and state authorities, including, but not limited to, juvenile authorities acting pursuant to Chapter 13.04 RCW, so that such authorities may address the student's educational needs.

F. Continuation of Educational Services

The District will not administer discipline in a manner that would prevent a student from completing subject, grade-level, or graduation requirements. Examples of alternative settings may include, but not limited to, alternative schools or classrooms, one-on-one tutoring when available, and online learning.

XV. EDUCATIONAL SERVICES DURING SUSPENSION, EXPULSION, OR EMERGENCY EXPULSION

A. Educational services

1. The District may not suspend the provision of educational services to a student in response to behavioral violations.
2. During the suspension, expulsion, or emergency expulsion of a student, the District must provide the student the opportunity to receive educational services. The educational services must enable the student to continue to participate in the general education curriculum; meet the educational standards established within the district; and complete subject, grade-level, and graduation requirements.
3. When providing a student the opportunity to receive educational services under this section, the District must consider:
 - a. Meaningful input from the student, parents, and the student's teachers;
 - b. Whether the student's regular educational services include English language development services, special education, accommodations and related services under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or supplemental services designed to support the student's academic achievement; and

- c. Access to any necessary technology, transportation, or resources the student needs to participate fully in the educational services.
4. The District may provide educational services to the student in an alternative setting or modify the suspension or expulsion on a case-by-case basis. An alternative setting should be comparable, equitable, and appropriate to the regular educational services a student would have received without the exclusionary discipline. Example alternative settings include alternative high schools, one-on-one tutoring, and online learning.

B. Notice

As soon as reasonably possible after administering a suspension or expulsion, the District must provide written notice to the student and parents about the educational services the district will provide. The District must provide the written notice in person, by mail, or by email. The notice must include a description of the educational services that will be provided and the name and contact information for the school personnel who can offer support to keep the student current with assignments and course work.

C. Exclusions for up to five days

For students subject to suspension or emergency expulsion for up to five (5) consecutive school days, the District must provide at least the following:

1. Course work, including any assigned homework, from all of the student's regular subjects or classes;
2. Access to school personnel who can offer support to keep the student current with assignments and course work for all of the student's regular subjects or classes; and

D. Exclusions for six to ten days

For students subject to suspension or emergency expulsion for six (6) to ten (10) consecutive school days, the District must provide at least the following:

1. Course work, including any assigned homework, from all of the student's regular subjects or classes;
2. Access to school personnel who can offer support to keep the student current with assignments and course work for all of the student's regular subjects or classes. School personnel must make a reasonable attempt to contact the student or parents within three school business days following the start of the suspension or emergency expulsion and periodically thereafter until the suspension or emergency expulsion ends to:

- a. Coordinate the delivery and grading of course work between the student and the student's teacher(s) at a frequency that would allow the student to keep current with assignments and course work for all of the student's regular subjects or classes; and
 - b. Communicate with the student, parents, and the student's teacher(s) about the student's academic progress.
3. An opportunity for the student to make up any assignments and tests missed during the period of suspension or emergency expulsion.

F. Language assistance

The District must ensure that notices and communications required under this section are provided in a language the student and parents understand, which may require language assistance for students and parents with limited-English proficiency under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

XVI. SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION GRIEVANCE AND APPEAL PROCESS

A. Suspensions and expulsions—Optional conference with principal.

1. Requesting a conference

- a. If the student or parent/guardian disagree with the District's decision to suspend or expel the student, the student or parents may request an informal conference with the principal or designee to resolve the disagreement. The request for an informal conference may be made orally or in writing.
- b. If the parent/guardian or student desires to have an informal conference with the principal or designee, the parent/guardian or student must notify the principal in writing or orally that they intend to grieve the suspension or expulsion within two (2) school business days of receiving notice of the suspension or expulsion. Failure to timely notify the principal or designee waives any right to an informal conference.
- c. The employee whose action is being grieved will be notified of the grievance as soon as reasonably possible.

2. Time limit

- a. The principal or designee must hold the conference within three (3) school business days after receiving the request, unless otherwise agreed to by the student and parents. The principal or designee shall immediately provide notice of the date of the informal conference to the parent/guardian and student in writing or orally.
- b. Within two (2) school business days after the informal conference is concluded, the principal or designee shall issue his/her decision in writing to the parent/guardian or student as to whether the discipline is affirmed, reversed or modified. The written decision may be mailed or personally served. If the written decision is mailed, service shall be deemed complete three (3) school business days after mailing.

3. Conference

At the informal conference the student and parent/guardian will be subject to questioning by the principal or designee and will be entitled to question staff involved in the matter being grieved. No legal counsel or legal representative of either the District or parent/guardian and student are permitted to be present at the informal conference.

During the informal conference, the principal or designee must provide the student and parents the opportunity to:

- a. Share the student's perspective and explanation regarding the behavioral violation;
- b. Confer with the principal or designee and school personnel involved in the incident that led to the suspension or expulsion; and
- c. Discuss other forms of discipline that may be administered.

4. Language assistance

The District must ensure the conference is held in a language the student and parents understand, which may require language assistance for students and parents with limited-English proficiency under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

5. Right to appeal

An informal conference does not limit a student's or parents' right to appeal the suspension or expulsion, participate in a reengagement meeting, or petition for readmission.

B. Suspensions and expulsions—Appeal.

1. Requesting an appeal

- a. The parent/guardian or student may appeal a suspension or expulsion to the District superintendent or designee orally or in writing.
- b. The employee whose action is being grieved and the principal will be notified of the grievance as soon as reasonably possible.

2. Time limit

- a. Appeals must be submitted within five (5) school business days from the date the District provided the written notice of suspension or expulsion notice under WAC 392-400-455. If the grievance notice is not timely served, then the parent/guardian and student waive any right to a grievance hearing with the Superintendent or designee, and the suspension or expulsion shall become final.

3. Short-term and in-school suspensions

- a. Notice. If the parent/guardian or student timely serves the grievance notice, then the grievant shall be given the opportunity to present a grievance, in writing or orally, to the Superintendent or designee. Unless there is good cause to continue the grievance hearing, the grievance hearing shall be held within five (5) school business days of the Superintendent receiving the grievance notice. The Superintendent or designee shall provide the parent/guardian and student notice, either in writing or orally, of the date of the grievance hearing. Notice of the date of the grievance hearing must be provided to the parent/guardian and the student at least two (2) school business days prior to the grievance hearing. If the notice of the date of the grievance hearing is done in writing, such notice may be personally served or mailed. If the notice is mailed, service shall be deemed complete three (3) school business days after mailing.
- b. Appeal Hearing. The superintendent or designee must provide the student and parents the opportunity to share the student's perspective and explanation regarding the behavioral violation orally or in writing.
