LEARNING TASKS AND ACTIVITIES:

1. Lecture
The majority of the information in this course will be delivered in the form of lecture. Because of this, it is strongly recommended that the students come to all classes and be attentive. Due to the amount of material that will be covered this semester it is suggested that the students take notes from the lecture material.
2. Reading
The textbook, as well as outside readings to be announced in class, provides a supplement and framework for the lecture material. The students are responsible for reading the corresponding material prior to the lectures, so the students will be prepared for class.
3. Class Discussion/Participation
Class discussion, ranging from informal talks to organized discussion days, will be an important part of the class. It is vital that the students participate in class in order to receive the maximum benefit from the course.
4. Instructional Aids
Varied instructional aids, including audio-visual, supplementary documents and readings, and Internet assignments will be used to furnish additional information in class.

FINAL EXAM

ASSESSMENT OF OUTCOMES:

Grades will be based on the following scale:

90%-100%	= A
80%-89%	= B
70%-79%	= C
60%-69%	= D
59% and below	= F

Incomplete grades will only be given under special conditions upon consultation with the instructor prior to final exams. If an incomplete grade is given, the remaining coursework must be completed within a specified period of time, usually six weeks from the end of the semester or summer session. If the work is not completed within the given time the student will receive a failing grade for the course.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Quizzes

At the end of each section a quiz will be given.

In and Out of Class Assignments

Several extra assignments will be assigned during the semester. Some will be done while in class, some will be completed outside of class.

Exams

There will be three exams, not including the final exam, during the semester. The information on the exams will be drawn primarily from the lecture material, but can include any information from the text, supplemental readings, or instructional aids. At the end of the semester the lowest test grade will be dropped (Not Including the Final Exam). Because of this, No Make-Up Exams Will Be Given.

The only exception to this policy is if a student will miss a test due to a Coffeyville Community College sponsored event. Examples would include: CCC sporting events, a band trip, a field trip in another class, etc. If a student will miss a test due to a school sponsored activity, he or she may take the test EARLY. The student must make arrangements with the instructor at least 48 hours prior to the test that will be missed. Only early tests will be given (no tests will be given late, no matter what the reason).

Final Exam

- ❖ Arriving late (unless discussed prior to class)
- Leaving early (unless discussed prior to class)

PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING:

Plagiarism is using someone else's words or ideas without giving the person credit. It is essential that the student correctly cite any sources that are directly quoted or paraphrased. Any student who intentionally plagiarizes or is believed to be cheating will be given a failing grade for the semester.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Attendance is expected. Coffeyville Community College's attendance policy reads as follows:

Students are expected to attend all classes. Regular class attendance is necessary for maximum success in college. It is the responsibility of the students to make definite arrangements for all work before going on field trips or other College-sponsored trips. School-sponsored activities will be counted as excused absences providing students complete all necessary assignments as designated by the instructors and the activity sponsors notify the instructors at least three days prior to the day(s) the student will be absent. Excused absences are to include academic competition, judging team competition, music events, official athletic events, field trips, convocations, and other college-sponsored events as approved by the Vice President of Learning.

Any student who has 7 unexcused absences must drop the class for excessive absences and nonparticipation in class. The student must fill out the paper work to drop-not the instructor. (See “Withdrawal from Classes for Non-Attendance.” Page 21 of the College catalog.)

This syllabus is subject to revision during the semester with prior notification to the student by the instructor.
