BLUE RIBBON TASK FORCE
MEETING #1

- HIGH FIVE
- Greetings, Introductions, Housekeeping
- Charge to the Committee
- Setting Our Group Norms
- What Brought Us Together
- TAKE TEN!
- Table Talk
- Review of Meeting Dates and Next Meeting Date, Time and Place
- Individual Reflections
HIGH FIVE

- When music cues, walk around, smile and High Five your fellow task force colleagues
- When the music stops, find a partner closest to you and wait for the instructions on what to do next
- Goal: 3 Rounds!
The task force will be charged with reviewing current programming and practices associated with FCPS specialized programs. In addition, the task force will be asked to explore proactive best practices for behavioral intervention. Through recommendations of the task force, program structures, resources and training will be augmented to guarantee optimal outcomes for the students of FCPS.

For the Annual General Meeting, we need a nominating committee.

Who should be on the nominating committee?

Do we need a committee to nominate the nominating committee?

Setting Our Norms

• Group norms guide how group members interact with each other
• Group norms help the group achieve its mission and achieve maximum effectiveness
• Effective groups consciously determine the kinds of guidelines that all group members are expected to follow
• Focus group norms on the most important areas of interaction & on past experiences that were positive
• Finally…The Fewer The Better!
Blue Ribbon Task Force 2022 Norms

1. Adhere to time limits while speaking
2. Respect passion and story people may bring, agree to disagree
3. No student names
4. Be open minded, listen first then share.
5. Use the parking lot to sidebars, be mindful of the time people have
6. Try to keep eyes on the future, what’s best for kids going forward; Still respect people’s journeys, we need to know where we have been in order to see where we are going.
7. End on a positive note, end on time
