Safe Schools and Students

Keeping schools safe is everyone's responsibility. To help, FCPS has a supervisor of Security and Emergency Management, each school has at least one school counselor, and there are school psychologists assigned to every school. A School Resource Officer (SRO) Program places a deputy sheriff in each high school to assist in maintaining a safe environment. The deputies also respond to needs in the corresponding middle and elementary feeder schools. In addition to their role as law enforcement officers, SROs serve as mentors and positive role models.

The Frederick community also offers resources to help students in need and keep our schools safe. If you need help or have a concern to discuss, there is always someone to listen. Keep these numbers handy:

- ★ Frederick County Hotline, 301-662-2255
Youth Crisis Hotline, 1-800-422-0009
Crisis intervention, information, referrals and phone support
- ★ Safe Schools Tip Hotline, 1-877-636-6332
To communicate concerns about threats to school or student safety
- ★ Phone Friend, 301-694-8255
A warm line for children home alone
