Frequently Asked Questions

Q. Do I need to fill out an application for each child?

A. Only ONE application for all students in your household is needed. BUT, if another student in your household is enrolled in a CEP (community eligibility provision) site, you will need to complete the Universal Benefits Application as well.

Q. How soon can I find out my eligibility status?

A. Please allow the Nutrition Services Department 10 business days to process your application.

Q. If I completed an application last year, do I need to complete another one this year?

A. Yes, in order to receive benefits, eligibility statuses must be renewed each school year.
