Detail

The Alsip Police Department spoke to a subject who alleged that a student was approached by a subject driving a car in the area of 12200 Cicero Avenue while walking home from school. The suspicious subject asked the student questions and then left the area. The student then contacted family.

The subject was described as the following: Male Black, Light Skinned, and in his early 20's. The Male Black subject was last seen driving a gold or beige sedan, possibly a Chevrolet in an unknown direction by the student.

The Alsip Police Department is currently investigating the incident further.
