

Sports Spectator Conduct:

Games are an extension of the school environment; therefore general school expectations are consistent during games as well. Due to the fact that attending games is a privilege, if students do not respond to initial redirection/reminders, you can have students exit the game. Students may be asked to leave the game due to their behavior are not allowed back at games for the duration of the season.

- Students are not allowed to bring any food or drink (water is okay) into the gyms.
- At games in the gyms, students must enter the gym right after school and stay there. Students are not allowed to leave school grounds and come back.
- Once the ball has been handed over during a free throw or the whistle has been blown for a volleyball serve nothing should be screamed out.
- Students are not allowed to enter and leave the gym without permission. Students may enter at 4:20 p.m. when the other after-school activities let out.
- If a student needs to exit during the game, they must use the doors at the northeast corner of the gym.
- Students can use the restroom one at a time.
- Students can get a bus pass to take the 4:20 p.m. activity bus from the supervisor
- Students are expected to communicate with their rides to be picked up immediately at the end of the activity. If there is an excessive wait to be picked up and/or it becomes common for a student, they may not be allowed to attend after school sporting events or be required to take the bus home.
- Students are prohibited from visiting an opposing school for a game unless they are with a responsible parent.
