

Beginner's Computer Class

ONLINE

January -May

This is an “upon request” class and therefore Time and Day will be set with ELL Center tutor after registration.

This class is for beginners who have minimal digital skills. In this class you will

- Learn the basics of using a computer.
- Typing fluency using the keyboard
- Accessing internet
- Web search
- Navigating a school or work website
- how to set up an email account, receive and send emails and attachments.
- Set up your google drive account.

Required for students taking this class:

- ability to follow basic English instructions
- a computer to access the class online and practice along.

Class Code : COMPBASIC

Register for this class online on the ELL Parent Center website

ELL Parent Center Class Registration Form | ELL Center