Friday, May 24, 2019 “The Phantom Phundamental for the month of May is CITIZENSHIP - “This country will not be a good place for any of us to live in unless we make it a good place for all of us to live in.” – Theodore Roosevelt

WORD OF THE DAY: menace
something that threatens danger or harm

STUDENT ANNOUNCEMENTS: (Read during 3rd hour)

- May 28 – Lunch Choices: Create Your Own Taco/Nachos or Baked Potato Bar
- Attention 8th grade students: If you had Mr. Lokken or Miss Faase for 6th grade language arts, stop down and see them. They have your "letter to future self" that you wrote on your first day of 6th grade.
- Attention all students: All library books must be turned in TODAY. As of this morning, 6th grade has 160 books checked out; 7th grade has 110; and 8th grade has 100 checked out. That's 370 books that need to find their way back to the library!
- Students in 6th and 7th grade - On Thursday or Friday, you will be asked during Social Studies class to complete a registration form for Fall sports. Please discuss with your parents tonight if you will play a fall sport and if so, what sport you will choose. As a reminder, sport offerings for fall are: Cross Country, Soccer, Football, and Volleyball.
- 8th grade students attending the Washington, D.C. trip, please attend a mandatory meeting in the GYM during 1st recess Tuesday, May 28. Please switch your lunch if needed. Intramurals are cancelled for the day.
- All Track uniforms should be returned clean by Tuesday May 28th or sooner if you are no longer involved in a competition. Uniforms should be returned to one of your track coaches; Mr. Hansen, Mr. Lefevre, Mr. Milz or Ms Clement.
- Information regarding the 2019 Youth Flag Football League is available in the commons display rack. Stop by and pick up a flyer if you are interested.
- Informtional flyers are available for the Youth 7 on 7 Flag Football League in the commons display rack. Registration is open through June 1st. Stop by and pick up a flyer if you are interested.
