Tardiness

Students who are tardy to school must report to the Health Office to receive a pass or admission to class. Parents are required to call or send a note to the nurse when their child is tardy. Excused tardies include family emergencies and doctor and dental appointments. Unexcused tardies include oversleeping, arriving late to school without a parent excuse, etc.

At McCracken, students who have three or more unexcused tardies may receive an after school detention. Students with frequent tardies will be referred to the Attendance Review Board where follow-up action may include, but is not limited to, a conference with parents or after school detentions.

The tardy policy for McCracken is as follows:

- Tardies are tracked on a quarterly basis.
- First time tardies are issued a warning
- A second tardy requires a conference with administrator(s) and a call home.
- A third tardy requires a parent conference and detention.
