

The Pennoyer Press

For the students, by the students.

March 2019 Edition

In this Issue:

Local News: Page 2

Book reviews: Page 3

Advice Column: Page 4

Comics: Page 5

Local News

Upcoming Pennoyer Variety Show

By: Emily

Can you believe that Pennoyer is going to have a show? It's going to be something you will never forget! There is going to be singing, magic tricks, and all kinds of acts! It will be held on Tuesday, May 21, 2019. Students, remember to sign up for it if you want to do an act! We hope to see you there!

Litworks 2019

By Katelyn

Litworks 2019 came to a kickoff at Eisenhower Library's early-bird event and moved to Ridgewood High School for the main event. There were many amazing authors. Here they are:

- Kendare Blake- Author of the Three Dark Crowns series and Anna Dressed in Blood.
- Mark Crilley- Author of Mastering Manga and more
- Robin Benway- Author of Far from the Tree and more
- Arvin Ahmadi- Author of Down and Across
- McKelle George- Author of Speak Easy, Speak Love
- Jeff Zentner- Author of The Serpent King and more

Make sure to check out these amazing authors and try their books!

Book Reviews!

The Girl Who Owned A City

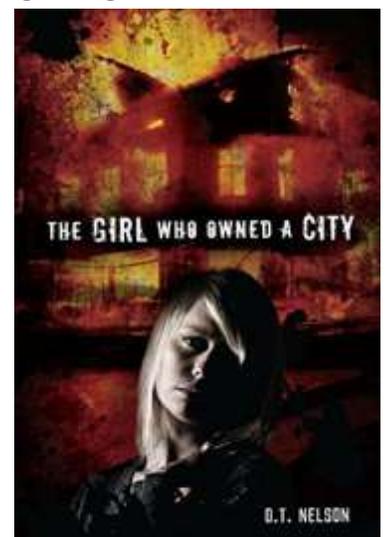

By O.T. Nelson

Grades 5-8

By: Martyna

A deadly plague has ended up killing all the adults living on the planet. The only things that were left behind were the children and their empty homes. Lisa, being only 10 years old, has to find food to survive and help care for her brother, making sure they are alive. All the children left on the planet are struggling to find food and survival supplies but no one except Lisa thought of going to abandoned stores other than stealing from others. The only reason why the kids on Grand Avenue are surviving is that of Lisa.

Lisa has figured out how to find food and stay protected from gangs that roam the streets. But the Chidester Gang, led by Tom Logan, are not afraid to attack. They are determined to get every bit of happiness out of the children surviving on Grand Avenue. After many horrible events that occurred because of the gangs, Lisa and her neighbors will have to find a way to survive. But how will they do that in such a dangerous place? Someone has to take charge, but who has the courage and strength to do so?

Fuzzy Mud

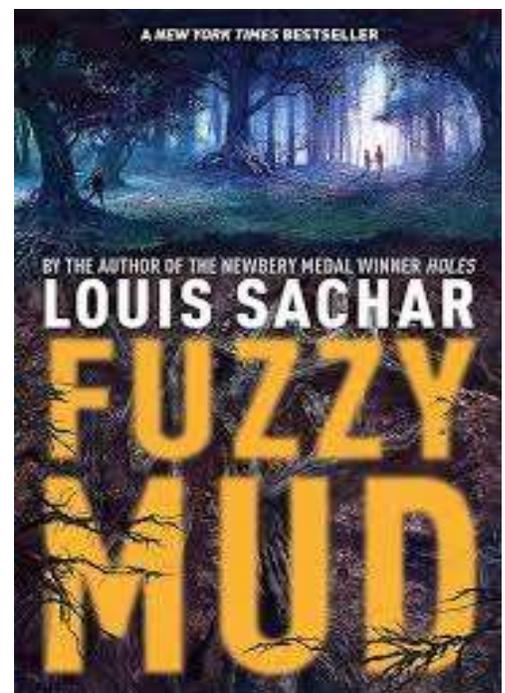

By Louis Sachar

Grades 3-8

By: Katelyn and Ceylan

Fuzzy Mud is an exciting thriller by Louis Sachar, an award-winning author. The story begins in a small town. Ten year-old Tamaya and her friend, Marshall (a seventh grader) go to a very prestigious school for extremely intelligent and gifted children. However, Marshall has made an enemy; Chad, just because he said one wrong thing. One day, Chad challenges Marshall to a fight after school. Marshall tries to avoid this, going through the woods by their school to get home, where he finds an unpleasant surprise that changes his life forever, and the lives of his friends.

Fuzzy Mud is an adventurous read, that grips you and makes you think about it constantly. Throughout the story you will find out what mechanism is spreading, becoming a worldwide epidemic.

Advice Column!

By. Mia

Do you have a problem and need guidance? You have questions that need answering? Ask the advice column! If you need advice or just a little push towards a goal use our advice column.

Here are the steps:

1. Answer the question in the form of a letter, state your problem and submit!
2. Please use anonymous names! Privacy is important to us, we want to solve problems, not to create drama!
3. Sit back! You just submitted your response to the advice column.

<https://goo.gl/forms/BjZojEuBotCUSgwj1>

Take my advice....

Comics

By: Simon

