Calculating Per Pupil Cost
This indicator represents the amount that local, state and federal governments spend on elementary and secondary education, adjusted for the size of the student body. It is calculated by dividing the current expenditures over the entire academic year for pre-kindergarten through grade 12 by the number of students in those grades. Expenditures include instruction and instruction-related costs, student support services, administration and operations. They exclude funds for school construction and other capital outlays, debt service and programs outside of public education.
