Trail Marker Tree Sculpture Dedication and Blessing Ceremony

Saturday, March 30
12 noon

Join The Grove for the dedication of a new sculpture depicting a Native American Trail Marker Tree. Speakers include Native American tribal elders, artist Dennis Downes and representatives from The Grove Heritage Association and the Glenview Park District. This event is free and open to the public.

Native American trail marker trees were created and used by the native people of the area for navigation and to designate landmarks and natural resources.

The dedication is held in conjunction with artist Dennis Downes' Annual Solo Art Show, March 28-31 at The Grove.
